From Principal's Desk

It's a matter of great privilege and pride to pen down a few words as prologue to our newsletter The Transparent volume VII. This newsletter mirrors the different activities organised by the college in the current calendar year. Even a cursory glance through the pages of this Newsletter would reveal that the college is progressively marching ahead in both the curricular and extra-curricular sphere.

Govt. Degree College Doda stands above many of its counterparts in its approach to education and it strives to provide its students a congenial atmosphere to chisel their talents. Many students of our college have secured positions and brought laurels in terms of cash prizes, mementoes, awards and commendation certificates while participating in various activities during the current session. The highly qualified college faculty leaves no stone unturned in imparting quality education to the students besides counselling and nurturing their potential attributes.

Being the head of the institution, my priority is not only to provide just degree certificates to the students but also to stir them into an idyllic human being who can serve the society in a disciplined and responsible way. Activities published in this newsletter are sufficient to prove my claim that GDC Doda is progressing at an exponential rate. I place on record my deep sense of gratitude for the efforts of Senior Asst. Prof. Falak and her team for their hardwork, dedication and sincerity in bringing out the latest issue of this Newsletter. I further congratulate the entire teaching and non teaching staff for their cooperation and support.

From Convener's Pen

Being the convener of the publication cell when the proposal of this newsletter was offered to me, I grabbed the opportunity to make a sincere effort. The Transparent intends to provide the glimpses of news and events organized by GDC Doda during the session 2018-19. It focuses on the development and the expansion of the canvas of knowledge and information related to the different activities organized by the institution. This newsletter is an embodiment of all the hard work put in by the students and the faculty of the college..

I express my gratitude to Dr. Shafqat Hussain Rafiqi for his patronage and encouragement. It is essential to mention certain people without whose efforts this newsletter would not have taken the final shape. My deepest appreciation goes to Dr. Jamsheed Ahmad (Co-Convener of Publication Cell) and Mr. Mohammad Abas Wani (Assistant Lecturer of English) for their cooperation and sincerity.

I sincerely hope that this newsletter will add to the already existing treasure of achievements of our college and shall encourage the students to express their hidden talent. Though we have tried our best to present the details correctly yet typographical and factual errors might have crept into this newsletter. I will be grateful to the readers if they bring any error to my notice.
